Every masterpiece has its flaws...

A true story-based period thriller about the man known as 'The Cézanne of fake money'.

Set in post-war France, the film stars Reda Kateb as Bojarski, a real-life Polish refugee who became the most ingenious counterfeiter of his time. For over 15 years, he secretly produced near-perfect banknotes in his own backyard—so authentic they could fool the Bank of France itself. But his illusion catches the relentless attention of Commissioner Mattei (Bastien Bouillon), whose obsession with capturing Bojarski turns into a thrilling game of cat and mouse.

A madcap comedy about a monumental trick, starring Kad Merad as the Pope, unfortunately inspired by several unknown true events.

To celebrate his recent appointment, the newly elected Pope plans a tour of Latin America, only to discover that the Vatican is bankrupt. A wealthy Mexican benefactor offers financial support on the condition that he attends an event in his honor in Ciudad Juarez - Mexico's notorious crime capital. However, things take a turn when the Pope, or rather his lookalike, is unmasked, and the so-called guardian angel turns out to be a drug trafficker willing to do anything to recover her 5 million euros.

Vincent MUNIER

Awarded three times the Eric Hosking Award BBC Wildlife
Photographer of the Year

After the success of The Velvet Queen at the Cannes Film Festival, César award-winning filmmaker Vincent Munier returns with a new ode to nature.

Delving deep into the woodland realms, where lynxes, bears, deer, owls, capercaillies, and other river creatures roam, Munier not only seeks to pay tribute once again to the visual splendor of nature but also to capture the forest's poetic sounds. The whispers of the woods are echoing the whispers passed from Munier's father to himself, and now to his own son. This becomes a heartfelt declaration of Munier's love for his father, intertwining familial bonds with the untamed beauty of the natural world.

What happens when you pick up someone else's life... including their phone?
A REMA(r)KABLE comedy that will leave you speechless.

Baptiste, a brilliant voice imitator, is struggling to make a name for himself. That is until Pierre Chozène, a famous writer, offers him an unexpected job: answering his phone calls while pretending to be him. Hounded by fans, journalists, and nosy acquaintances, Pierre needs peace and quiet to finish his most personal novel. Baptiste accepts the job and becomes the writer's official voice, but soon realizes that stepping into Pierre's shoes comes with a whirlwind of complications.

Amidst the captivating landscapes of Reunion Island, a universal drama delving into family fractures, set to the pulsating rhythm of breakdancing.

Thomas, a 15-year-old from Reunion, has only one dream: to win a breakdance competition and escape to the big city. But when his mother abruptly throws him and his sister out onto the streets, their world is shattered. Sent to live with a father they've never known, they must confront their mother's abandonment and are left to process it on their own. Amidst the painful journey of rebuilding, torn between rebellion and embracing their newfound freedom, they must rely on their sibling bond to take back control of their lives.
